Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Marriage Registration Ordinance.

Appointment of Registrar-General and his duties.

(1) There may be appointed a Registrar-General of Marriages for Sri Lanka.

(2) The Registrar-General shall, subject to the directions of the Minister, have the general control and superintendence of the registration of marriages under the provisions of this Ordinance, and of all persons appointed for or engaged in the carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Appointment of Assistant Registrars-General and their duties.

[3,34 of 1946]

3. There may from time to time be appointed a fit and proper person or each of two or more such persons to be or to act as an Assistant Registrar-General of Marriages. Any person so appointed may exercise, perform or discharge any power, duty or function expressly conferred or imposed upon the Assistant Registrar-General, and may subject to the directions of the Minister and under the authority and control of the Registrar-General, exercise, perform or discharge any power, duty or function conferred or imposed upon the Registrar-

General, by or under this Ordinance.

District Registrars. 4.

- [8, 22 of 1955] (1) For each district there shall be a District Registrar of Marriages.
- [8, 22 of 1955] (2) The *(See section 4 of the Transfer of Powers (Divisional Secretaries) Act, No. 58 of 1992.)Government Agent of a district shall be the District Registrar for that district.
- [8, 22 of 1955] (3)* (See section 4 of the Transfer of Powers (Divisional Secretaries) Act, No. 58 of 1992.)Every Additional Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Additional Assistant Government Agent and Office Assistant to a Government Agent, of a district shall be an Additional District Registrar for that district.
- [8,22 of 1955] (4) Every Assistant Registrar-General shall be an Additional District Registrar for the district of Colombo.
- [8, 22 of 1955] (5) There may be appointed any person as a District Registrar or as an Additional District Registrar in addition to, or in place of, any officer who is a District Registrar or an Additional District Registrar by virtue of the preceding provisions of this section.
- [4, 34 of 1946] (6) Every District Registrar shall have and may exercise within his district the powers and duties vested by or under this Ordinance in a registrar of a division, and shall superintend and control, subject to the direction of the Registrar-General, the registration of marriages within the district, and the registrars hereinafter mentioned, and all other persons appointed for or engaged in carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance.

Establishment of registration divisions. 5.

- (1) The Minister may, by Notification in the Gazette, divide the several districts of Sri Lanka into such and so many divisions for the purpose of the registration of marriages as shall appear expedient, and may at any time by a like Notification amend, alter or abolish any such division.
- [11, 34 of 1946] (2) Every division which has been lawfully established at the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to be a division under the provisions of this Ordinance until such time as a new division shall be constituted in lieu thereof under the provisions of this Ordinance.
- [8, 22 of 1955] (3) Every reference to any revenue district in any Notification made under subsection (1) of this section before the commencement of the Administrative Districts Act shall, after the commencement of that Act, be construed as a reference to the administrative district consisting of the area which constituted that revenue district.

Appointment 6.

[11, 34 of 1946]

- (1) The Registrar-General may appoint one or more Persons to each such division, who shall be called Registrars of Marriages, and any such registrar at pleasure he may remove and appoint some other person in his place, or in the place of any registrar who shall have died or resigned office, or been granted leave of absence from his duties Provided that in case of the death, sudden illness, or incapacity of the registrar of a division, or in case of other emergency, it shall be lawful for the Registrar-General or District Registrar, by writing under his hand, to appoint a person to act as registrar for such [11.34 of 1946] division so however that no such appointment shall be made by a District Registrar for any period exceeding thirty days at any one time. Such acting appointment shall be forthwith entered under the hand of the officer making the appointment in a book to be kept for the purpose.

[11, 34 of 1946] [\[2.38 of 2006\]](#) (2) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed or continuing as a Registrar if he -

- (a) becomes a Member of Parliament; or
- (b) becomes a Member of a Provincial Council; or
- (c) becomes a member of a Local Authority; or
- (d) is holding any paid office under the Republic; or
- (e) is engaged in a profession that would prejudicially affect the duties of a Registrar.

(3) Where any Registrar becomes disqualified from continuing as such by virtue of subsection (2), the Registrar-General shall have the power to remove such person from the post of Registrar with the approval of the Minister by Order published in the Gazette and such removal shall take effect on the date specified in such Order.

(4) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the post of Registrar as a result of any resignation or any removal from office, any other person shall, having regard to the provisions of this section, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

Power to 7.
rules.

[5, 34 of 1946]

(1) The Minister may from time to time make rules for the direction of the Registrar-General, the District Registrars, registrars, ministers, and all persons whomsoever in the discharge of their duties under this Ordinance, for all matters required by this Ordinance to be prescribed, and generally for the effective carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) No rule made under this section shall have effect until it is approved by Parliament and notification of such approval is published in the Gazette.

Residence, office, and station of

8.

(1) Every registrar shall dwell and have his office in such convenient place in his division as shall be appointed by the District Registrar, and shall, if so directed by the District Registrar, have within his division a station or stations as may be approved by the District Registrar, and every such station shall, for the purposes of the provisions of this Ordinance, with respect to the attendance of persons and the registration of marriages at the office of the registrar, be deemed to be his office :

of 1945] Provided that the District Registrar may, in the special circumstances of any case and with the prior approval of the Registrar-General, authorize a registrar to dwell or to have his office or to have a station at a place outside his division.

(2) The District Registrar shall forthwith notify to the Registrar-General the places appointed by the District Registrar as the residence, office, and station or stations for every registrar of his district.

Attendance of registrar at his office,

9. The registrar shall attend at his office and at each such station on such days and during such hours as shall respectively be appointed by the District Registrar, and shall cause his name, with the addition of the words " Registrar of Marriages " with the name of the division, for which he is registrar, and the days and hours of his attendance as appointed by the District Registrar, to be placed in legible characters in the Sinhala, Tamil and English languages in a conspicuous place on or near the entrance of his office and station.

Registration of place of worship for solemnization of marriage.

(1) The minister, proprietor, or trustee of a building used as a place of public Christian worship may apply to the Registrar-General that such building may be registered for solemnizing marriages therein.

(2) The application shall be in the form A in the First Schedule, and shall contain a declaration signed by at least twenty householders, and countersigned by the said minister, proprietor, or trustee, that they frequent or intend to frequent such place of worship.

(3) The Registrar-General may register such place of worship for the solemnization of marriages in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and he shall thereupon give a certificate of such registry and of the date thereof under his hand, which certificate shall be in the form B in the First Schedule, and the Registrar- General shall give public notice of such registry by notification in the Gazette.

(4) No building shall be registered which is not used for public Christian worship.

(5) Any building already registered at the time when this Ordinance comes into operation shall be deemed to have been registered under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Registration of such place if thinly populated district.

11 Where the population in any district is so scattered that it is difficult to procure the signatures of twenty householders, it shall be lawful for the Registrar-General to issue his certificate upon a declaration signed by as many householders as live within convenient distance from the building, and countersigned by the minister, proprietor, or trustee, and upon such other evidence as the Registrar-General may require to satisfy him that the building is used for public Christian worship.

Cancellation or substitution of registration of building.

(1) If any building registered for the solemnization of marriages shall at any subsequent period cease to be used for the public Christian worship of the congregation on whose behalf it was registered, the minister, proprietor, or trustee for the time being of such building shall with all convenient speed notify the fact to the Registrar-General in form C in the First Schedule, and the Registrar-General shall cause the registry thereof to be cancelled.

(2) If it shall be proved to his satisfaction that the same congregation use some other such building for the purpose of public Christian worship, he may register such new place of worship instead of the disused building.

(3) Such cancellation or substitution when made shall be entered in the book kept for the registry of such buildings, and shall be certified and published in the manner prescribed in the case of the original registry of the disused building.

(4) After such cancellation or substitution as aforesaid it shall not be lawful to solemnize any marriage in such disused building, unless the same shall be again registered in the manner prescribed by section 10.

Rectification of errors. 13. The Registrar-General may at any time correct or cause to be corrected any error in any entry made in the book kept under section 10 for the registration of buildings.

[6, 34 of 1946]

Publication of lists of registrars and registered buildings. 14 The Registrar-General may from time to time publish in the Gazette a list of the Registrars of Marriages in Sri Lanka, with their names, the names of their divisions, offices, and stations, and a list of the buildings registered for the solemnization of marriages therein, and of which the registration has not been cancelled.

[7, 34 of 1946]

[11,34 of 1946]

in that behalf by the Registrar-General or by the District Registrar, shall upon application of the party giving such notice, and on receipt of the certified copy of the notice, if any given to the other registrar, issue a certificate substantially in the form F in the First Schedule :

[2, 49 of 1944]

Provided that in the meantime no lawful impediment to the issuing of such certificate be shown to the registrar, and provided that the issuing of such certificate shall not have been forbidden or a caveat entered in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) Every such certificate shall state

(a) the day on which it was entered,

(b) that the issue of the certificate has not been forbidden by any person lawfully empowered in that behalf, and

(c) that the full period of twelve days has elapsed since the entry of the notice, or where two notices have been given since the entry of both notices, or that the issue of the certificate has been authorized by licence under section 27.

Issue of 27.

of 1975]

(1) At any time after the entry of the notice, and upon the production of a certified copy of such notice, the District Registrar within whose district such notice has been given or the registrar to whom notice has been given, may issue, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), a licence under his hand substantially in form G in the First Schedule authorizing the District Registrar or the registrar to whom notice has been given or, in any case referred to in section 28 such other registrar as he may specify in the licence, to issue the certificate under section 26, if in the meantime no lawful impediment to the issue of such certificate is shown to the satisfaction of such registrar or if the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden or a caveat entered in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) Where the parties to the intended marriage have given notice to two registrars under subsection (2) of section 23, the District Registrar within whose district one or both of such notices have been given or either of the two registrars to whom notice has been given, may issue upon the production of a certified copy of each such notice, and subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a licence to each of the registrars, or, in any case referred to in section 28, to such other registrar as may be specified therein, and such licence shall be substantially in the form H in the First Schedule,

(3) Before the issue of such licence one of the parties to the intended marriage shall appear personally before the District Registrar or the registrar, or where notice has been given to two registrars, before either of those two registrars and make and subscribe a written declaration that

(a) he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or alliance, or of any other lawful cause, or other lawful hindrance, to the said marriage;

(b) that the consent of any person or persons whose consent is required has been obtained; and

(c) that the issue of the certificate has not been forbidden, nor any caveat entered, nor any suit is pending in any court to bar or hinder the said marriage.

(4) Where the declaration is made before the District Registrar it shall bear stamps to the value of thirty rupees to be supplied by the party making the declaration and where the declaration is made before the registrar of a division it shall be accompanied by a receipt issued by the District Registrar in proof of payment of a sum of thirty rupees.

(5) The registrar to whom the licence is issued shall, upon the receipt thereof, issue his certificate, and every such certificate shall state the particulars set forth in the notice and the day in which it was entered, and that the issue of the certificate has been authorized by the licence of the District Registrar or the registrar.

Issue of certificates and 28.
solemnization of marriages upon alteration of divisions.

[4,49 of 1944]

[[11,34 of 1946]

(1) Where, by virtue of any Notification under section 5 any area which is situated within any registration division (hereinafter referred to as the "old division") becomes, with effect from a date specified in that Notification, a separate division or a part of any other existing division (hereinafter referred to as the "new division"), and where, before that date, notice of an intended marriage is given by a party resident within that area, but the certificate under section 26 is not issued before that date or the marriage is not solemnized before that date, then, notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance, that certificate may be issued, or that marriage may be solemnized, and any other act required by this Ordinance to be done in that connection by a registrar of the old division may be done, by a registrar of the old division or of the new division nominated in that behalf by the District Registrar within whose district that area is situated ; and every such registrar shall comply with such directions as may be given to him by the District Registrar.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply in every case where one registration division is amalgamated with another registration division to form a new division in like manner as those provisions apply to a case where an area within any registration division becomes a separate division or a part of any other existing division.

Forbidding of issue of certificate. 29. Every person whose consent to a marriage is required by law may forbid the issue of the registrar's certificate by signing and subscribing, in the presence of the registrar and of two credible witnesses, who shall be personally acquainted with the person forbidding, and shall be known to the registrar or be resident within his jurisdiction, and by delivering to him a notice in writing in the form I in the First Schedule, with his or her name, place of abode, and the capacity in which he or she forbids the marriage.

Caveat. 30.

(1) Any person may at any time before the issue of the certificate enter a caveat against its issue. Such caveat shall be in the form J in the First Schedule.

(2) The caveat shall contain a statement of the name and residence of the caveator, the names and residences of the parties to whose marriage he objects, and the grounds on which he objects to the marriage, and shall be written on paper bearing a stamp of ten rupees, and shall be signed in the presence of the registrar and of two credible witnesses (who shall be personally acquainted with the caveator, and shall be known to the registrar or be resident within his jurisdiction), and shall be delivered to the said registrar.

Proceedings on marriage being forbidden or caveat entered. 31.

(1) In the event of a marriage being forbidden or of a caveat being entered as aforesaid, the registrar shall refuse to issue the certificate, and shall forthwith make report of the objection to the District Judge of the district within which his division is situated. Such report shall be in the form K in the First Schedule, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the notice of marriage and of the notice forbidding the marriage or of the caveat entered.

(2) The District Judge shall thereon proceed to make summary inquiry (in which the person forbidding the marriage or entering the caveat shall be respondent) into the grounds of objection to the marriage, and shall order the certificate to issue or not to issue as shall appear to him just, and he shall have power, if it be proved to his satisfaction in the course of the inquiry that the marriage was forbidden or caveat entered by such person, on frivolous or vexatious grounds, to impose on him a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

(3) The order of the District Judge shall be subject to appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(4) A copy of the order of the District Court, or of the Court of Appeal in appeal, certified under the hand of the District Judge, shall be forwarded by him to the registrar, who shall thereon issue or refuse to issue the certificate as such order shall direct.

(5) The time taken up in disposing as aforesaid of the objection to the marriage shall not be taken into account in the calculation of the period of three months under section 26 or section 39.

Facilities for marriages in Great Britain and Northern Ireland between British subjects resident in Great Britain and Northern Ireland and British subjects resident in Sri Lanka and vice versa. 32.

(1) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized in the United Kingdom between a British subject there resident and a British subject resident in Sri Lanka, a notice may be given, a declaration may be made and a certificate of notice of marriage may be issued in Sri Lanka for the purpose of the said marriage by the registrar in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnized in Sri Lanka.

(2) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized in Sri Lanka between a British subject resident in the United Kingdom and a British subject resident in Sri Lanka, a certificate for marriage issued in England and Wales by a superintendent registrar, or in Scotland or Northern Ireland by a registrar, or a certificate of proclamation of banns in Scotland, shall, for the purpose of the said marriage, have the same effect as a certificate of notice of marriage issued under section 26, and in any such case, on the production of the said certificate, a marriage may be solemnized in pursuance of section 33 without any of the preliminaries prescribed by the above sections. marriage with reference to Scotland. Meaning of marriage with reference to Scotland

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression " certificate for marriage " in reference to certificates issued in Scotland shall mean a certificate of due publication of notice of intention to marry.

(4) The provisions of section 39 shall not apply to a notice given for the purpose of a marriage referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

Where 33. On the production of the certificate of the registrar, or, where notice has been given to two registrars, on the production of a certificate from each of the registrars, to a minister, or to a registrar (to whom either or both the parties shall have given notice, or, in any case referred to in section 28, who may be nominated in that behalf by the District Registrar), it shall be lawful for a marriage to be solemnized between the said parties

[5,49 of 1944]

(a) by or in the presence of the minister in a registered place of worship or other authorized place, or

(b) by the registrar in his office, station, or other authorized place :
Provided that there be no lawful impediment to the marriage.

Solemnization of 34.
Marriage by minister.

(1) A marriage in a registered place of worship shall be solemnized by or in the presence of the minister of such building or a minister thereto authorized by him with open doors, between six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, and according to the rules, customs, rites, and ceremonies of the church, denomination, or body to which such minister belongs.

[\[2, 11 of 2001\]](#) (2) Immediately after the solemnization of a marriage, the minister shall enter in triplicate, in a book to be kept for that purpose, a statement of the particulars of the marriage in the Form L in the First Schedule. Every such entry shall be numbered consecutively. The minister shall issue to the parties, free of charge, the third copy of such statement and the same be pram facie evidence of the solemnization of such marriage according to the rules, customs, rites and ceremonies of the church, denomination or body to which such minister belongs.

(3) The statement shall be signed by the minister, by the parties to the marriage, and by two respectable witnesses who shall have been present at the solemnization thereof, and who shall be personally acquainted with the parties and (in the event of the parties not being known to the minister) also with the minister, and whose full names, rank or profession, and places of residence shall be added to the statement by the minister.

[\[3,47 of 1947\]](#) (4) The minister shall see that the particulars entered in the book regarding the names, race, civil condition, age, profession or occupation, and residence of the parties to the marriage correspond with the particulars given in the registrar's certificate, and that the parties and witnesses sign their names legibly. If any party or witness signs illegibly, or affixes a mark or cross, the minister shall write the name of such party or witness immediately over such signature or mark, with the words "This is the signature of ", or "This is the mark of ", immediately preceding such name.

[\[49, 11 of 1963\]](#) (5) The minister shall, within seven days from the date of the solemnization of the marriage, separate from the register book the duplicate statement of the marriage and transmit the same to the District Registrar within whose district the marriage was solemnized together with stamps of a value equal to the amount of the fee payable to such Registrar for the registration of such marriage.

[\[5, Law 41 of 1975\]](#) (6) The District Registrar shall, upon receipt of the minister's duplicate statement, together with the stamps equal in value to the amount of the fee payable to such registrar for the registration of the marriage, forthwith send to the minister an acknowledgment of the same, and enter or cause to be entered the particulars thereof or of the copy prepared under section 37(2) in triplicate, that is to say, the original, the second copy (hereinafter referred to as the "duplicate"), and a third copy in a marriage register book to be kept by him, in the form M in the First Schedule, and shall certify that the particulars have been obtained from the minister's statement, and shall carefully preserve the said minister's statement until despatched to the Registrar-General as in section 37 provided. The third copy shall bear an endorsement under the hand of the District Registrar to the effect that it is issued under section 35A.

(7) No minister shall be compelled to solemnize a marriage between persons either of whom shall not be a member of the church, denomination, or body to which such minister belongs, nor otherwise than according to the rules, customs, rites, and ceremonies of such church, denomination, or body.

[49, 11 of 1963] (8) A minister shall refuse to solemnize a marriage until the parties thereto have paid to him, for transmission to the District Registrar, the fee payable to such Registrar for the registration of the marriage.

Solemnization of 35.
registrar.

(1) A marriage in the presence of the registrar shall, except as hereinafter provided, be solemnized between the parties at his office or station with open doors, and between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the afternoon, and in the presence of two or more respectable witnesses, and in the following manner :-

(2) The registrar shall address the parties to the following effect :-, " Be it known unto you, A.B. and CD., that by the public reception of each other as man and wife in my presence, and the subsequent attestation thereof by signing your name to that effect in the registry book, you become legally married to each other, although no other rite of a civil or religious nature shall take place; and know ye further that the marriage now intended to be contracted cannot be dissolved during your lifetime except by a valid judgment of divorce, and that if either of you before the death of the other shall contract another marriage before the former marriage is thus legally dissolved, you will be guilty of bigamy and be liable to the penalties attached to that offence".

(3) Each of the parties shall then make in the presence of the registrar and witnesses the following declaration: " I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D., here present", and each party shall say to the other: " I call upon all persons here present to witness that I, A.B., do take thee, CD., to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)".

(4) If either of the parties be deaf or dumb as well as unable to write, the declaration and statement shall be interpreted to him or her, and his or her assent obtained by whatever means of communication are commonly used by him or her, and the registrar shall take special care to satisfy himself that the party understands, assents to, and adopts the declaration and statement.

(5) The registrar shall then enter in triplicate, that is to say, the original, the second copy (hereinafter referred to as the "duplicate") and a third copy, a statement of the particulars of the marriage in his marriage register book in the form M in the First Schedule, and shall cause the entry to be signed by the parties and witnesses, and himself sign it in the manner prescribed in regard to a marriage solemnized by a minister. The third copy shall bear an endorsement under the hand of the registrar to the effect that it is issued under section 35A.

(6) Every such entry shall be numbered consecutively.

Copy of registration entry to be issued free. 35A. The third copy referred to in the preceding section shall forthwith, free of charge, be delivered or transmitted by post to the female party to the marriage by the District Registrar or the registrar.

[5, Law 41 of 1975]

Addition of religious ceremony to marriage solemnized by registrar.

[8,34 of 1946]

(1) Where a minister of any Christian church or persuasion reads or celebrates in a registered place of worship any marriage service or ceremony at the request of the parties to any marriage which has previously been solemnized by a registrar, such reading or celebration shall not

(a) be deemed to supersede or to affect in any way the marriage previously solemnized as aforesaid; or

(b) be entered as a marriage in the register book kept by the minister under section 34.

(2) No religious service or ceremony shall be read or celebrated at the office or station of a registrar in connexion with the solemnization of any marriage by the registrar.

Transmission to Registrar-General of duplicates of entries, substitution of original and duplicate entries and reconstruction of original and duplicate entries.

(1) The duplicates of entries made by the registrar under section 35 shall be separated from the book by him and sent monthly to the District Registrar before the fifth day of the following month and by the District Registrar, together with the duplicates of any entries made by him as well as duplicates, if any, received from ministers under sections 34 and 40, to the Registrar-General, who shall cause the same to be filed and preserved in his office; and if no marriage shall have been registered during any month, the said registrar shall certify such fact under his hand, and transmit such certificate in the manner prescribed in regard to the transmission of the duplicate entry.

(2) Where a duplicate of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 is lost, damaged, has become illegible or is in danger of becoming illegible the Registrar-General may, after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, cause such duplicate to be replaced by a copy of the original entry, certified by the District Registrar or, if the original entry is in the custody of the registrar or the minister, certified by such minister or registrar, as the case may be, and countersigned by the District Registrar after verification of the copy with the original, and shall cause such copy to be filed and preserved. Every copy so filed and preserved shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be a duplicate duly filed and preserved in the office of the Registrar-General, under subsection (1).

(3) Where an original of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 is lost, damaged, has become illegible or is in danger of becoming illegible, and the duplicate is available, the Registrar-General may, after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, cause to be substituted therefor a copy of the duplicate certified by him to have been made after verification with the duplicate and to be a true copy of the duplicate. Such copy shall replace the aforesaid original of the registration entry and shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the original of the registration entry which was lost, damaged, had become illegible or was in danger of becoming illegible, as the case may be.

(4) Where both the original and the duplicate of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 are lost, damaged, have become illegible or are in danger of becoming illegible, the provisions of section 13 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to and in relation to the substitution of copies of such original and duplicate. Such copies shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the original of the marriage registration entry and the duplicate, respectively.

Solemnization of marriage by minister or registrar under special licence. 38.

(1) In case the female party to an intended marriage belongs to a class of people to whose customs it is contrary to require their females to appear in public before wedlock, it shall be lawful for the District Registrar, if he is satisfied after such inquiry as he may deem necessary that such female party has at all times observed and continues to observe the customs of that class with regard to such appearance in public, to issue a licence empowering a registrar to solemnize the marriage at such place and hour as the parties may prefer, and as may be named in the licence:

[2,15 of 1940]

Provided that the requirements of this Ordinance in all other respects than the place and hour of marriage shall be fully complied with.

[2,15 of 1940] (2) In case the female party belongs to a class other than that described in the preceding subsection, or is, in the opinion of the District Registrar, not entitled to the benefits of that subsection, it shall be lawful for the District Registrar, upon the application of one of the parties to the intended marriage, and which application shall bear a stamp of the value of thirty rupees, to issue a licence empowering a registrar to solemnize the marriage at such place and hour as the parties may prefer, and as may be named in the licence:

Provided that in every other respect than the place and hour of marriage the requirements of this Ordinance shall be fully complied with.

[11,34 of 1946] (3) Upon application by one of the parties to the proposed marriage or by the minister by or before whom it is intended to be solemnized to the District Registrar within whose district the marriage is to be solemnized, the District Registrar may issue a licence to the minister for the solemnization of the marriage at such place and at such hour as the parties may prefer:

Provided that in every other respect the requirements of this Ordinance shall be fully complied with, and provided further that the requirements of section 34, subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), shall apply to marriages solemnized hereunder.

New notice required after three months. 39. Whenever a marriage shall not be had within three months, except as provided in section 31 (5), after the notice thereof shall have been entered by the registrar, or, if notices have been given to and entered by two registrars, after the earlier notice shall have been entered, the notice and any licence or certificate which may have been granted thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void; and no such marriage shall be solemnized or registered until new notice shall have been given and certificate thereof issued in the prescribed manner.

Death-bed marriages. 40.

(1) It shall be competent for a minister to solemnize without the preliminaries required by this Ordinance, at any convenient place, a marriage between parties of whom one is believed to be on the point of death :

Provided that such person is of sound mind, memory, and understanding.

(2) The minister shall immediately enter a statement of the particulars of the marriage in the book and in the manner prescribed by section 34. and shall at the foot of such entry, which shall be made in duplicate, make a certificate signed by himself and the witnesses to the solemnization, which certificate shall be substantially to this effect

" We certify that A. B., one of the parties to the above marriage, is to the best of our knowledge and belief at the point of death, but of sound mind, memory, and understanding".

[11, 34 of 1946] (3) Within twenty-four hours of such solemnization the minister shall send to the District Registrar the duplicate of such entry and certificate.

(4) The District Registrar shall, upon receipt of such duplicate and certificate, forward an acknowledgment of the same to the minister, and shall cause a copy of the same to be posted for twenty-one days in a conspicuous place in his own office and in the office of the registrar within whose division the marriage was solemnized.

(5) On the expiry of twenty-one days from the date of the first posting of the copy as aforesaid by the District Registrar, he shall enter the marriage in the marriage register book kept by him under section 34 :

Provided that no caveat shall have been lodged or other proceedings taken by way of prohibition under sections 29 and 30, and on the registration of such marriage it shall be deemed to be valid and effectual for all purposes as if the same had been solemnized by or in the presence of the minister upon a certificate issued by the proper registrar and the requirements of section 34, subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), had been complied with.

(6) In the event of any caveat being entered or proceedings being taken by way of prohibition under sections 29 and 30, the District Registrar shall not register the marriage till the order of the District Court or of the Court of Appeal is made under section 31.

Entry made by registrar in marriage register trie best evidence of marriage. 41.

(1) The entry made by the registrar in his marriage register book under sections 34, 35, and 40 shall constitute the registration of the marriage, and shall be the best evidence thereof before all courts and in all proceedings in which it may be necessary to give evidence of the marriage.

(2) The copy substituted under section 37 (2) for the lost duplicate entry of a registrar shall for the purposes of this section be deemed an original entry made by the registrar.

Proof of certain matters not necessary to validity of registered marriage. 42. After any marriage shall have been registered under this Ordinance it shall not be necessary, in support of such marriage, to give any proof of the actual dwelling or of the period of dwelling of either of the parties previous to the marriage within the division stated in any notice of marriage to be the place of his or her residence, or of the consent to any marriage having been given by any person whose consent thereto was required by law, or that the place or hour of marriage was the place or hour prescribed by this Ordinance, nor shall any evidence be given to prove the contrary in any suit or legal proceedings touching the validity of such marriage.

Mode of supplying omission and correcting error in registration. 43.

(1) Where a marriage has been heretofore contracted or shall hereafter be contracted which, without fault of the parties thereto, may have been omitted to be registered, or may have been erroneously registered, either of the said parties, or .in the case of his or her death the issue or other lawful representative of such party, may apply to the District Court having jurisdiction over the division where the marriage was contracted to have such marriage duly registered, or the erroneous registration amended.

(2) The court, after due notice to the Registrar- General and the registrar or minister before whom the marriage was contracted, and to such other parties as the court shall deem expedient, and after hearing such evidence as may be produced before it or as it may think fit to call, shall, if it be satisfied that such marriage has been duly contracted and not registered, or not correctly registered, without fault of the parties thereto, order the marriage to be correctly registered.

(3) The Registrar-General shall thereupon cause the marriage to be correctly registered according to the directions of the court.

Correction of 44. Any clerical error which may from time to time be discovered in a marriage register may, after due inquiry, be corrected by any person errors in registers. authorized in that behalf by the Registrar-General, subject to the rules made under the provisions of this Ordinance.
[11,34 of 1946]
