Acceptance of other certificates issued by
The registrar General's Department in lieu of Birth Certificates

It has been decided that any one of the following certificates issued by the Registrar General's Department is acceptable for the purpose of confirmation of the name and date of birth of persons.

- a). Copy of the Register of Birth Registration issued free of charge by the Registrar who registered the Birth (Registration Form 1B).
- b). Abstract from the Birth Register (Registration Form 65 B).
- c). Probable age certificate (Registration Form 142 B).
- d). Adoption Certificate (Registration Form 143 B).
- e). Certified Photo Copy of Birth Register.

However, if any doubt arises on such a certificate a clarification should be obtained from the Registrar General.
